Thirteen Top Ten Things To Do In Minneapolis, other than Baseball:

- ❖ Walk across the Mississippi on the stone arch bridge.
(Check) Stone Arch Bridge, with other Canadians in the foreground.

- ❖ See the stagecoach in the lobby of Wells Fargo Centre.
- ❖ Listen to “Christmas Card from a Hooker in Minneapolis” by Tom Waite. (Check; <https://youtu.be/J3jGvuM9IIQ>)

- ❖ Eat a Juicy Lucy Burger at the 58 Club, or Matt’s Bar. (No Lucy Burger, but much, much more)

- ❖ Listen to “Purple Rain” by Prince. (Check)
- ❖ Listen to “Minneapolis” by Lucinda Williams. (Check; <https://youtu.be/zrEcRKjloT8>)
- ❖ Visit Mill City Museum – site of the 1878 Flour Mill Explosion,
- ❖ and the Warehouse District around Target Field. (Check, and Check)

- ❖ Visit Minnehaha Falls. (Missed it)

- ❖ Watch U.S. Pond Hockey Championship game – (Oops, wrong season).
- ❖ Avoid the site of the George Floyd murder.

- ❖ Buy deodorant, it is going to be hot, sticky, and humid. (Check)

- ❖ See Mary Tyler Moore statue on Nicollet Avenue. (Check)

“Ted has been in love ever since he was a baby and saw his reflection in the bathwater.”
